RE: THSNA Travel-To-A-Mentor Award Call for Applications; Deadline June 1, 2017

Each THSNA Travel-To-A-Mentor Award provides financial support (up to $2500 per award) for one mentee to train for one week with a pre-selected research mentor at the mentor's facility anywhere in the US, Canada, or Mexico. Award funds will cover transportation, hotel/housing, meals, and essential incidental expenses.

Applicants must be a member of a THSNA member organization. HTRS is a member of THSNA.

The structure of each one-week experience will be determined jointly by the mentee and mentor, and is expected to include:

- a) clinical and/or laboratory experiences (where applicable)
- b) attendances at relevant conferences and laboratory or research group meetings
- c) a meeting with the mentor to discuss potential future collaborations

Awards will fall into the following categories:

- Nursing
- Laboratory technologist/specialist
- Pharmacist
- PhD researcher
- Physician investigator, clinical, translational, or basic
- Patient advocate
